Heated Telegrams Are Exchanged Over Troubles | swering this measure took occasion to call the senator to task for Tattemption of the state should do."

changed Over Troubles at Brownsville.

Austie, Tex., Oct 25.—Another phase of the Mexican border situation came to light when Gov. Ferkuson made known the contents of several telegrams passing between him and United States senator Morris Sheppard. Senator Sheppard wired the governor of the serious conditions at Brownsville and indicated that the state should exercise every resource at its command to check depredations. The governor did not like the tone of the telegram, so its immediately wired back arging senator Sheppard to tell him just exact through me had done to the first, is received. You well know that for months the governor of the states should exercise every resource at its command to check depredations. The governor did not like the tone of the telegram, so its immediately wired back arging senator Sheppard to tell him just exact hould do and insinuating that the state through me had done to the state should do and insinuating that the state through on the other side of your real motive.

WIGWAN—A MASSIVE SPECTACLE.

The Wigwam today is running two of the heat productions which the Blograph ever made. Both have been seen at that pouplar theater in the past.

Both films are new re-issues and are meeting with packed houses wherever they are shown.

"Judith of Bethulia," is a tremendous spectacle which has been declared to be 'the one perfect picture." It is in four reals and was made under the direction of D. W. Grifflith. It is the best thing he ever produced for the Biograph ever made. "The Diving Girt' is a shinty picture in which Mabel Norman does diving stunts that rival those of Annette Kelbermann. The famous comedian, Fred Mace, assists her in the fun making.—Advertisement.

to Support Movement Against Monarchy.

Tehto, Japan, Oct. 30.—The Japanese government has requested the American government to give its support in the representations which are being made at Pekin for the purpose of postponing reestablishment, of a monarchy in China until the European war is ended. Japan's policy was decided upon after consultation with Great Britain.

Lansing will Not Talk.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 20.—Secretary Lansing declined to discuss the nature of Japan's request that the United States support a general representation to China, novising squainst any change in her form of government at this time.

It is known that the Japanese ambassador here recently took up the situation informally with secretary Lansing. The American government, it is understood, took the position that it could not express any views on the subject because to do so might be construed as an inherference in the internal affairs of a sovereign state.
